

XXXV INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM OF CONSERVATION OF THE CULTURAL AND NATURAL HERITAGE

FIRST RESTORATION WORKSHOP ON CULTURAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL PROPERTY

PRIZE "FEDERICO SESCOSSE LEJEUNE"

Date:

From 13 to 15 November, 2019

Place:

Zacatecas, México.

Objective:

Strengthen the transmission of knowledge, proposals and exchange of methodological resources, as well as experiences among scholars and researchers of cultural and environmental goods, for the conservation and dissemination of World Heritage, through the realization of the XXXV International Symposium on the Conservation of Cultural Heritage and Natural, the 1st Workshop on the Restoration of Cultural and Environmental Goods, as well as the presentation of the "Federico Sescosse Lejeune" Award.

Theme of the Symposium:

1. The cultural heritage in the face of natural and anthropic catastrophes.
2. Projects and works of intervention of historical and artistic monuments.
3. Historical furniture and intervention projects and works.
4. Recovery and enhancement of cultural and rural landscapes.
5. Master plans of conservation and management in historic sites or World Heritage.

Workshop on Restoration of Cultural and Environmental Goods

1. Analysis and proposals, study case: Zacatecas and its Historical Center
 - a. Guided tour
 - b. Formation of work teams
 - c. Diagnosis and intervention strategies
2. Working sessions with the case study: Zacatecas and its Historical Center

Federico Sescosse Lejeune award ceremony